

Garden Party, May 27, 1937: Cambridge-educated lawyer Ba Maw, Burma's first prime minister under then-British rule, and his wife grace a reception in Chatham, outside London. Burma became independent in 1948